LAVONIA ADELAIDE THRASHER BARNETT

Who Died February 28, 1910

And whose heart and love for each of her fourteen children never flagged a single time but it was always enthusiastic, genuine and strong as

BENJAMIN RUFUS BARNETT, youngest child of Michael Humphrey Barnett and Tabitha Ann Dixon was born 1855 and in the summer of 1876 married Lavonia Adelaide Thrasher, daughter of William Wilson Thrasher and Alethen Sarah Greer of Brantley, Ala. For 2 or 3 years they lived at Briar Hill, Ala. and then removed to Montgomery. He was a farmer, grocery merchant, timber merchant and for a short while dealt in live stock. - LIEUT. DAMON JAMES BARNETT, son of Wm. H. & Frances Edgar Barnett, who married Bessie M. Aker of Ferndale, Washn., has been visited twice by the stork since our previous issue of "Those Who and Whats What" - and I am delighted to record:
- ELIZABETH LouEtta BARNETT, b., 7:21 A.M. July 20, 1937 at San Pedro, Calif. My guess is that this young lady will be given by her parents a real opportunity in education, including voice piano and some dancing. Her Dad plans to finish his sea-going business in 9 years, then Elizabeth will be 17 and I'd say beautiful-- perhaps they will build a home on the West Coast-- perhaps the Stork will have made a couple more of his most welcomed visits before then and what a happy household there will be with a l l present thereafter for a nice span of joyful years!-- then Elizabeth can be the "front" for the West Coast branch of Barnett's.
- BENJAMIN HERBERT BARNETT, 2nd son of Damon J. & Bessie Aker Barnett, b., 7:04 A.M. Oct. 23, 1942 at Bellingham, Washn., A very fine young man - the "Barney" look is plainly visible all over his face. His Uncle Joel and I agree that he really has exactly "Whats What" it takes to succeed.
