SECTION 7 - (Revised Nov. 15, 1934)

GEORGE WASHINGTON BARNETT, son of Michael Humphrey Barnett and Tabitha Ann Dixon, was born in Montgomery County, Ala. June 10, 1841 died at Fort Worth, Texas April 5th, 1907 and is buried there. His wife, Dorothy Josephine Sledge Barnett, died in 1887 or 1888 at or near Brenham, Texas (about half way between Houston & Austin) Issue: (8)

Walter Barnett, the oldest lived to young manhood and died at Brenham, Texas.

Laura Barnett, died early in life.

Tabitha Barnett, died early in life.

Alice Barnett, who married a Mr. Franks, both are deceased.

Alice was a nurse, received her training in Houston or Beaumont Sanitarium. After several years nursing, had an operation for appendicitis and died in the same hospital. They had no children.

Elizabeth Barnett, Dollie Barnett, James Robert Barnett and Bessie Barnett came from Texas to Alabama in May 1893 - Maggie and Dollie going to the home of Uncle Robert A Barnett near Briar Hill. Maggie died there a few months later and is interred Carters Cemetery, Briar Hill. Robert and Bessie went to home of Uncle William H. Barnett, near Ansley and were reared there under the loving care of Grandmother Barnett until her death which was about June 1898. After Maggie's death, Dollie went to Montgomery, and in Nov. or December 1894 married Charles W. McDade of Atlanta, Ga. They had three children:

Mazel McDade, the oldest lives now in Jacksonville, Fla. Is an accountant and maintains office 109 Julia St. Jax. Fla.

Hugh McDade, lived to be 21 years of age, was seriously injured in an automobile accident July 4th, 1921 or 1922 between Montgomery and Ramer, Ala. died three weeks later in Hill's hospital, Montgomery. Interred in Atlanta, Ga.

Dorothy McDade, the youngest died when about 16 months of age, in October 1905, she is also interred Atlanta.

Chas. W. McDade married again, had several children by second marriage, all of whom I understand are living in Atlanta with their mother. Chas. W. McDade, died November or December 1932.

One of the oldest national guard companies in the country was organized under the name of the Montgomery True Blues in 1836. The command volunteered to participate in the war that was then being waged against the Seminole Indians in Florida. As an organization, the True Blues have since offered their services in three wars-- to the United States against Mexico; to the Confederate States against the Unionists; and to United States against Spain. John James Barnett, as a member of Company "D", Montgomery True Blues reported for duty at the Mobile, Ala. rendezvous on May 2, 1898 and on May 20, 1898 the True Blues were officially mustered into the 2nd, Alabama U. S. Volunteer Infantry, under command of Colonel James Wade Cox.

Subsequently upon request of Chaplain A. C. Harte of Mobile John James Barnett was detailed to act as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. tent or headquarters, where magazines, stationery, ink, pens, etc., furnished by the ladies of Mobile were distributed to the soldiers. Song services were held under the direction of the Chaplain. There were occasions when the Chaplain brought in couple barrels of apples and the boys were invited in to have an apple and later join in the song service. 2nd, Alabama U. S. Volunteers first encamped Mobile, then to Miami, Fla (which was only 5,000 population) then removed up to Jacksonville, Fla. and mustered out of service at Montgomery.

Returning from Spanish-American War service reentered telegraph service at Montgomery, Ala. serving in various capacities and then made Manager at Anniston, Ala. thence Knoxville, Tenn and Nashville, Tenn. He served at Anniston about 5 years, Knoxville 5 years and Nashville 6 years, leaving the service in 1920 to enter present vocation of mail advertising business including the compiling and selling of automobile owner lists for the State of Tennessee.
